

Hello, I'm

MARIA VELVE

MAKEUP ARTIST, BEAUTY EXPERT AND EDUCATOR

Let's work together!

I'm a professional makeup artist, beauty expert and content creator with more than 20 years of experience in the beauty industry. I specialize in helping women over 40 navigate the changes in their skin, makeup and beauty routines with practical education, thoughtful product recommendations and techniques that work with their skin now.

Through relatable, educational content, I take the overwhelm out of beauty and encourage women to approach aging with curiosity and confidence rather than trying to turn back the clock. My philosophy is simple: less, but better—choosing products intentionally and understanding how to use them effectively.

Drawing on my background in makeup artistry, spa management, beauty retail and education, I bring both professional expertise and a real-life perspective to the products and experiences I share. I partner with beauty, skincare, haircare and lifestyle brands that align with my commitment to helping women feel informed, represented and confident at every stage of life.
